

Active Insight: Evidence in Action

Tip #1198

Developing Student Leadership Communication Opportunities

Overview

Community communication opportunities strengthen participation, confidence, wellbeing, and belonging through collaborative movement experiences supporting meaningful engagement and leadership development. Inclusive recreation environments support communication, teamwork, and positive decision-making while strengthening participation pathways and accessibility. Students benefit from supportive communication opportunities promoting motivation, active involvement, and lifelong physical activity participation across educational communities successfully together consistently.

Key Teaching Ideas

Community leadership experiences strengthen engagement by encouraging communication, collaboration, and meaningful movement participation throughout recreational settings. Coordinate leadership communication opportunities supporting confidence, teamwork, and positive decision-making during activities. Encourage authentic participation approaches, authentic leadership strategies, and reflective discussions helping students strengthen relationships, maintain engagement, and develop sustainable physical activity habits supporting lifelong recreation involvement successfully across communities consistently.

Practical Application

- Coordinate leadership communication opportunities.
- Encourage authentic participation approaches.
- Use authentic leadership strategies.
- Support participation communication regularly.
- Assess communication engagement consistently.

Next Steps

Discover Respectful Relationships resources supporting leadership communication and inclusive participation opportunities.

Respectful Relationships approach is informed by the Resilience, Rights and Respectful Relationships teaching and learning materials (Department of Education and Training Victoria, 2018), social and emotional learning frameworks (CASEL, 2020), and contemporary research in gender equality, consent, and respectful relationship education.

